TRUMP INTERNATIONAL HOTEL & TOWER® CHICAGO RANKED #1 LARGE CITY HOTEL IN NORTH AMERICA BY TRAVEL + LEISURE'S 2010 WORLD'S BEST AWARDS

(CHICAGO; July 8, 2010) — Trump International Hotel & Tower® Chicago has been ranked #1 in Travel + Leisure's 2010 World's Best Awards readers' survey in the category of Large City Hotels — Continental U.S.

and Canada. The 92-story downtown Chicago luxury hotel — the seventh tallest building in the world — received the highest overall score for its 339 luxuriously appointed guestrooms and suites and award-winning amenities, which include the 23,000 square-foot Spa at Trump®; Sixteen, a fine dining restaurant featuring the modern American cuisine of Chef Frank Brunacci; Rebar, a chic cocktail lounge; and the Terrace at Trump, all with spectacular views of Lake Michigan, the Chicago River and the city's famed architecture. The coveted list appears in the August 2010 issue.

"Our team is honored to receive such prestigious recognition from the readers of Travel + Leisure," says T. Colm O'Callaghan, vice president and managing director of Trump International Hotel & Tower® Chicago. "We strive to deliver the ultimate experience for our guests by providing superlative service and amenities, and this award is a true testimony for our continuing success at achieving the high standards we have set forth."

Travel + Leisure will honor Trump International Hotel & Tower® Chicago at an awards luncheon at Trump SoHo™ New York, the newest addition to the Trump® Hotel Collection, on Wednesday, July 21. Mr. O'Callaghan and the Trump family will be on hand to accept the award on behalf of the hotel.

Travel + Leisure readers rated hotels, cities, islands, airlines, tour operators, car rental agencies and cruise lines in the magazine's annual World's Best Awards readers' survey. Hotel rankings are based on readers' ratings in the following categories: rooms/facilities, location, service, restaurants/food and value. Large City hotels have 100 or more rooms.
